

THE ART OF THE BOAT: PHOTOGRAPHS FROM THE ROSENFELD COLLECTION

MEETING HOUSE ③

The Rosenfeld Collection, acquired in 1984 by Mystic Seaport Museum, is one of the largest archives of maritime photographs in the United States. This Collection contains nearly one million pieces from 1881 to the present. Images are captured in various formats, from glass plate negatives to color transparencies, and from glossy prints to photographic murals.

HOME PORT P. R. MALLORY BUILDING ④

Home Port is the Museum's family activity center. It primarily serves children ages 8-12 with a variety of crafts and amusements.

FIGUREHEADS AND SHIPCARVINGS

WENDELL BUILDING ⑤

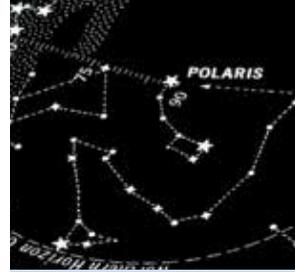

Ships' figureheads were an important form of public art in the 19th century. A figurehead gave a ship its personality, and each one expressed a unique meaning, imbued with values and reflecting popular culture of the time. This exhibit aims to help visitors see these objects through 19th-century eyes and to understand and appreciate the craft of carving figureheads as an important art form.

FROM CLIPPERS TO CONTAINERS STILLMAN BUILDING, SECOND FLOOR ⑥

Explore the original ship's cabin of the 1883 square-rigged sailing ship Benjamin F. Packard.

SUSAN STUCKE FUNK CHILDREN'S MUSEUM ⑩

The Children's Museum is a hands-on exhibit for children ages 4 to 7 and their parents.
