ON EXHIBIT

Explore imagination, history, and artistry with these unforgettable exhibits.

Monstrous: Whaling and Its Colossal Impact (1)
Step into the world of 19th-century American whaling through storytelling and rare artifacts that reveal the immense physical, economic, and human scale of the whaling industry and its lasting legacy.

Brickwrecks: Sunken Ships in LEGO® Bricks (6)
Uncover stories of exploration, trade, tragedy, and discovery through historic and modern shipwrecks brought to life with extraordinary LEGO® models and interactive experiences.

Fish and Forest: Through the Lens of a Commercial Fishermom (4)

Experience Rhode Island's commercial fishing community through photographs, fishing gear, documentary footage, and interviews as Corey Wheeler Forrest shares the traditions, labor, resilience, and regional connections that shape life on the water.

Figureheads and Shipcarvings (5)

Encounter the artistry, symbolism, and cultural significance of nineteenth-century maritime carvings through figureheads, ship figures, and a carousel hippocampus that showcase the craftsmanship behind this celebrated form of public art.

From Clippers to Containers (6)

Trace the evolution of American deepwater trade from the Age of Sail to the present and discover the innovations, industries, and global connections that transformed maritime commerce.

The Shipyard Gallery (50)

Witness the craft of preserving historic vessels through models, tools, photographs, and workers' stories that reveal the challenges of wooden ship restoration and the enduring legacy of America's maritime heritage.
